Website Functionality

The Geometric Interactive studio website does not use tracking, analytics, or marketing cookies.

Basic technical information may be processed automatically by our hosting provider for security, stability, and website delivery purposes.

Job Applications

If you apply for a position at Geometric Interactive, we process the personal information you provide for recruitment purposes.

This may include:

- contact information
- CV and employment history
- portfolio materials
- education information
- other information voluntarily included in your application

The legal basis for this processing is GDPR Article 6(1)(b) (steps prior to entering into an employment contract) and Article 6(1)(f) (legitimate interests in recruitment).

Application materials are stored only for as long as necessary for the recruitment process unless further retention is agreed with you.

We ask applicants not to include sensitive personal information unless necessary.

Legal Basis for Processing

We only process personal data when you contact us directly or apply for a position at the studio.

This may include:

- Name
- Email address
- Information included in emails and correspondence
- CVs, portfolios, applications, and related recruitment materials
- Technical server information such as IP addresses and security logs

Sharing of Data

We do not sell personal data.

We may share data with trusted third-party service providers such as:

- website hosting providers
- email providers
- cloud storage or recruitment tools

These providers process data only on our behalf and under appropriate data protection obligations.

Data Retention

We retain personal data only as long as necessary for the purposes described in this policy or as required by law.

For example:

- general inquiries are retained as long as relevant to ongoing communication
- unsuccessful job applications are deleted within a 6-months period

Your Rights

Under GDPR, you have the right to:

- request access to your personal data
- request correction of inaccurate data
- request deletion of your data
- object to processing
- request restriction of processing
- request data portability where applicable
- lodge a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency (Datatilsynet)
